

First Command Educational Foundation

First Command Educational Foundation (FCEF) has many online resources to help you find answers and plan a course of action to move toward financial freedom. The first step of this journey is up to you! Following are just a few of our resources.

Financial Tools

Go to our website: www.fcef.com, hover over the Education tab (top of page), then click on Financial Tools and Calculators on toolbar.

Here you will find very useful financial calculators, a debt reduction calculator, a spending plan/budgeting calculator, and an investment risk comfort tool. Take a look at all of them; feel free to use the ones that can help you.

Financial Readiness Curricula

Money Matters Online

A free web-based financial readiness curriculum for young adults. To learn more, go to our website: www.fcef.com, hover over the Education tab (top of page), then click on Education Resources on the toolbar and scroll down to Money Matters Online.

Military Money Matters

A free web-based financial readiness curriculum for junior servicemembers. To learn more, go to our website: www.fcef.com, hover over the Education tab (top of page), then click on Education Resources on the toolbar and scroll down to Military Money Matters.

You can also send an email to edufoundation@fcef.com. We will answer your questions and provide you with information on accessing the programs.

Financial Guidance

Remember, financial freedom is a journey—not a destination. It's all about setting realistic goals, establishing a plan, and sticking to the plan. By doing so, you will begin to free yourself and your family from the most common stress of adulthood—having the financial ability to live without worry and providing the fundamentals for yourself and your family.
